

introducing the stanmer members club

why is stanmer house the best place to do business in sussex?

In a short space of time Stanmer House has positioned itself as arguably the best facility of its kind in the South East of England. The ideal venue for your business conference, party, exhibition or event... But now much more than that, Stanmer House is now attracting many networking organisations and high profile business events. Let us introduce you to the 'Stanmer Members Club' and tell you all about doing business in Brighton's most idyllic setting.

Stanmer House is a stunning 18th century grade 1 listed stately home, situated just off the A27 in the heart of the Sussex countryside. It reopened its doors last summer, following a £5 million refurbishment which earned itself the '2007 Sussex Heritage Award' for its level of refurbishment.

Launching this month, Brighton Visitor are pleased to exclusively announce details of the 'Stanmer Members Club'; setting new standards for all your meeting, presentation and conferencing needs.

The house couldn't be more ideally placed, with the bonuses of free parking (almost impossible to come by at other Brighton based conferencing facilities) and being just 15 minutes away from the town centre with excellent connections by coach and taxi, Stanmer House offers a winning combination of classic grandeur and cutting edge technology which will charm even the toughest of clients

The Henry Pelham and Thomas Pelham rooms are both available to hire for conferencing and functions and can hold up to 75 guests, they are both fully equipped with plasma screens, webcams and Bose speakers in order to provide you with the best resources for your business presentation. An IT support person is available on site all day, every day to tend to any technical hitches you may come up against, Stanmer House will also happily set up presentations in-advance of your meetings if required, using their in-house equipment. Its personal touches like this which really makes Stanmer a cut above the rest.

A dramatic sweeping staircase leads up to the first floor of the house where you will find a number of meeting rooms of various sizes and a business reception, whilst two seminar rooms are located on the ground floor. The meeting rooms are perfect for product launches, away days or team events and really look the part. If you wish to book a lengthier conferencing visit then the house has strong affiliations with three and four star hotels, all situated in the town centre, to make sure that business trip runs as smoothly as possible regardless of the limitations of your budget.

Don't be fooled into thinking that you are only welcome for just the duration of your meeting too, whatever the needs of your occasion, Stanmer invite you to enjoy the relaxed and cosy atmosphere for as long as you want... Why not enjoy the freedom of the house by having a coffee on one of their lobby leather sofas? Or perhaps it's time to peruse through those overdue emails over the Wi Fi internet? Better still, why not treat your new business acquaintances to a glass of wine and some relaxed networking time in the library...

So what are the benefits of your business becoming part of the Stanmer Members Club? Well, for starters, there's a hot desk facility, where at the drop of a hat you can escape the office and have some quiet working time to yourself in a private room. This is also ideal for home workers who may want to stage a small meeting or simply have a change of scenery in beautiful countryside surroundings.

Members can also enjoy the benefits of receiving 10% off the booking of any conferencing room and any member of your business will receive special rates for weddings and parties. Another perk is that you and your company can enjoy special membership rates with a growing number of partners. This is not just valid for one visit but for the entire duration of your organisations membership.

You will find that your social calendar begins to fill up as well. Members are invited to come to afternoons and listen to a guest speaker, or host an evening themselves, providing the ideal ground for building up inter-business relationships. In the future there are exciting plans to develop the membership package further.

So why not pay a visit to Stanmer House and sample for yourself the many benefits it can bring to your business? It's open Monday to Friday 9-6pm. If you drop off your business card in the bar you will be entered into a prize draw where you stand to win £2,000 of either audio visual equipment or spa treatments.
